

Pecan Cookie Tarts

Ingredients

- 1.25 cups Almond meal/flour
- 3 tablespoons ghee or organic unsalted butter, melted
- 1/4 cup raw honey
- ½ cup pecans, crunch majority into pieces but leave a handful whole or halved.
- Approx 12 medjool dates pitted and cut into halves
- Approx 1 tablespoon water

Materials

- Mini muffin pan
- Food processor

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Rub oil of your choice (avocado oil, olive oil, coconut oil) to each muffin space of your muffin pan to prevent sticking.
2. In a medium sized bowl, mix almond meal, butter, and honey until a nice dough forms.
3. Press approximately a ½ tablespoon of dough into each space of the muffin pan. Use a small (approx. ½ or ¼) round measuring spoon to press a depression in the middle of the dough. Bake for approximately 10 minutes.
4. While the base of the tart is baking, combine pecan pieces and medjool dates in food processor. Pulse until a consistent texture. If the mixture is not processing well, add water in teaspoon increments until able to process.
5. Remove from oven and spoon a mounded heap of date mixture on top of dough. Press a whole pecan on top. Bake another 3-5 minutes.
6. Remove from oven and allow to cool at least ½ hour.
